P1. Management thanked the volunteers who organized the charity event in the city park. Our partners in Madrid and Warsaw have confirmed that they will attend the conference in May. Water damage in the west wing has delayed the move by several weeks, according to the facilities manager. When the meeting resumed after lunch, the chair asked for comments on the draft policy.

> P2. Women in leadership roles were the focus of a short presentation by the human resources team. The committee met on Monday to review the annual budget and the plans for the coming year. Wednesday afternoon sessions will be moved to the larger room on the second floor. It was noted that the website will be updated once the new logo has been approved.

P3. Management thanked the volunteers who organized the charity event in the city park. We agreed that the report should be shared with all staff before the end of the month. Wednesday afternoon sessions will be moved to the larger room on the second floor. Members raised several questions about the cost of the new building and the timeline for its completion.

P4. Meanwhile, the marketing department is preparing a summary of the survey results for the board. Women in leadership roles were the focus of a short presentation by the human resources team. Management thanked the volunteers who organized the charity event in the city park. With the deadline approaching, everyone was asked to submit their timesheets by Friday.

> P5. Women in leadership roles were the focus of a short presentation by the human resources team. More information will be available on the intranet in the coming weeks. Most participants felt that the workshop had been useful and that it should be repeated next spring. Members raised several questions about the cost of the new building and the timeline for its completion.

P6. Many of the proposals were approved without changes, although some will need further discussion. When the meeting resumed after lunch, the chair asked for comments on the draft policy. It was noted that the website will be updated once the new logo has been approved. We agreed that the report should be shared with all staff before the end of the month.

P7. Meanwhile, the marketing department is preparing a summary of the survey results for the board. Many of the proposals were approved without changes, although some will need further discussion. Measures to reduce energy use will be introduced gradually over the next two quarters. Microsoft Word and Google Docs were both mentioned as tools for drafting the shared documents.

> P8. Most participants felt that the workshop had been useful and that it should be repeated next spring. With the deadline approaching, everyone was asked to submit their timesheets by Friday. We agreed that the report should be shared with all staff before the end of the month. Water damage in the west wing has delayed the move by several weeks, according to the facilities manager.